ROME FREE ACADEMY

ROME, NEW YORK

One Hundred Years

As the 1968–1969 school year has progressed, we of the combined De-O-Wain-Sta staff have observed all facets of student life at Rome Free Academy and have recorded them in the 1969 De-O-Wain-Sta. Hopefully, we have provided a book full of memories for the seniors, whose high school years have come to a close, and to the juniors and the sophomores, whose time here has just begun.

The class of 1969 will close the first hundred year volume of R.F.A.'s history. It is fitting that we preserve your memories of this centennial year in a volume of "Bookends." We started September seeing the green leaves turn to brown, then through "A Hazy Shade of Winter," until the springtime of our lives when we have become "The Graduate." The seasons of our lives will change with the scenery, but we can remember at any convenient time the close of the first hundred years; funny how our memories skip looking over "Bookends."

We wish to thank Charing Cross Music for permission to use words from Simon and Garfunkel's album "Bookends" which appear on pages 2, 22, 23, 28, 33, 39, 40, 100, 103, 108, and 155.

Yes, yes; I am old. In me appears
The history of a hundred years.
Empires', kings', captives'
  births and deaths;
Strange faiths and fleeting
  shibboleths;
Tragedy, comedy, through my pages
Beyond all mummed on any stages;
Cold hearts beat hot, hot hearts
  beat cold,
And I beat on.

Carl S. Paige

Carl S. Paige has proven himself to be one of the most tireless personalities at Rome Free Academy. A Phi Beta Kappa from St. Lawrence University, he has served at R. F. A. for twenty-five years. Few jobs are too hard for him, and few jobs are too small for him to think about. With the go-getting ambition that he shows, he has gained the respect of all the people with whom he has worked.

Mr. Anthony Dorsino has been R.F.A.'s Vice-Principal in charge of boys' discipline for the past four years. A former math teacher, he is always near, ready to hear complaints from both students and teachers.

Guidance

"See what's become of me."

Through our school years, guidance counselors provide us with a program which best suits our capabilities. With their help, we learn to cope with our problems as well as acquire adequate information about tests and colleges. We would be very lost and confused without these perceptive counselors.

"Looking over manuscripts of unpublished rhyme"

Under the supervision of Dorcas B. Watters, the English Department supplements its teaching materials with films and records in appropriate areas of study. There has been a recent stress on practical usage with more emphasis on composition and creative writing as well as on critical writing. Students practice communicating their ideas both through writing and through speaking. To provide a clearer understanding of certain plays and books, field trips are planned to see the productions as they are performed on the stage and in the movies.

History

"Weaving time in a tapestry"

To expand our understanding for the future, we need a good foundation from the past. During the sophomore year, World History from ancient Rome to modern times is taught. The following year, juniors study American History and cover discovery, colonization, and development of our country. Seniors gain insight into the political, social, and economic theories through one of the many electives offered.

Under the leadership of Mr. Ball, students will hopefully find a way to contribute to tomorrow.

Languages

Today, linguists are very much in demand, since communications in our world have improved. Rome Free Academy students have the opportunity to learn such languages as German, French, Latin, Spanish, Russian, and Italian. Through the help of trained teachers and language laboratories, students learn the basic elements of foreign language. Under the direction of Mr. Lewis Moselle, the Language Department helps students to meet the demands of international communication.

The Rome Free Academy library is developing a microfilm collection. The library classroom, which also houses many books and the micro-films, is used by classes in all subjects, and by all teachers for supplementary materials.

The librarians are kept very busy ordering and cataloging new books, maintaining proper study conditions, and assisting students in finding research materials for their classes.

It's a real gas!

Under the direction of Joseph Palombi, the Science Department makes us aware of our external environment as well as our internal functions. The many courses offered are Biology, Earth Science, Health, Advanced Health, Chemistry, Physics, Genetics, and Physiology. Most of these courses require labs in which the students actually experiment and derive their own conclusions. Our Science Department aims at giving each student a solid science background.

Mathematics

"When you have to make a choice."

For the math-minded, there is a great variety of courses. Under the supervision of Ernest Stockwell, students may find a course to suit their needs and capabilities. For sophomores, there is Math 10, a geometry course. Junior students are offered Trigonometry or Intermediate Algebra. For seniors, math is an optional course. However, they can take Math 12A, Advanced Algebra; Math 12B, Statistics or Computer Math; or Elementary Analysis. For business orientated students, Business Math and Bookkeeping are offered.

Through the girls' Physical Education Department, spirit and teamwork are developed. Girls are also offered a wide range of intramural and interscholastic competition. Field hockey, table tennis, basketball, bowling, gymnastics, swimming, volleyball, softball, track, and archery are offered to all interested girls. At the beginning of each class, anyone may see the girls doing sit-ups and jumping jacks to warm up for class.

THE CLASS OF 1969

It's hard to believe, but our high school years are almost over. The three most memorable years of our lives have passed us by. A time it was and what a time it was!

Our sophomore year found us experiencing the bewilderment that faces every new sophomore class. We survived the sale of elevator tickets, forced choruses of the Alma Mater, and established a strong foundation for our future years.

The Class of 1969 certainly made itself known in its junior year. Working together, enthusiastic class members, with the help of Mrs. Hubbell, transformed the gym into a psychedelic wonderland of a "Sky of Diamonds." Our hard work and diligence brought us top honors in nearly every drive and class competition. And in May, when our rings arrived, we were filled with the anticipation of our senior year.

Our senior year has been everything that we hoped it would be. Although we saw our football team lose its first football game in five years, we produced even more ORANGE POWER in our following games. Our fabulous Senior Play, "Time Out For Ginger," broke all records for a capacity sellout. Then the plans for our Senior Ball began. And it will go down in the records of R.F.A. as the greatest Senior Ball in the 100 years of Rome Free Academy.

It was a time of innocence, a time of confidence. It was the end of a century of Rome Free Academy's history, yet for all of us it will bring a new beginning.

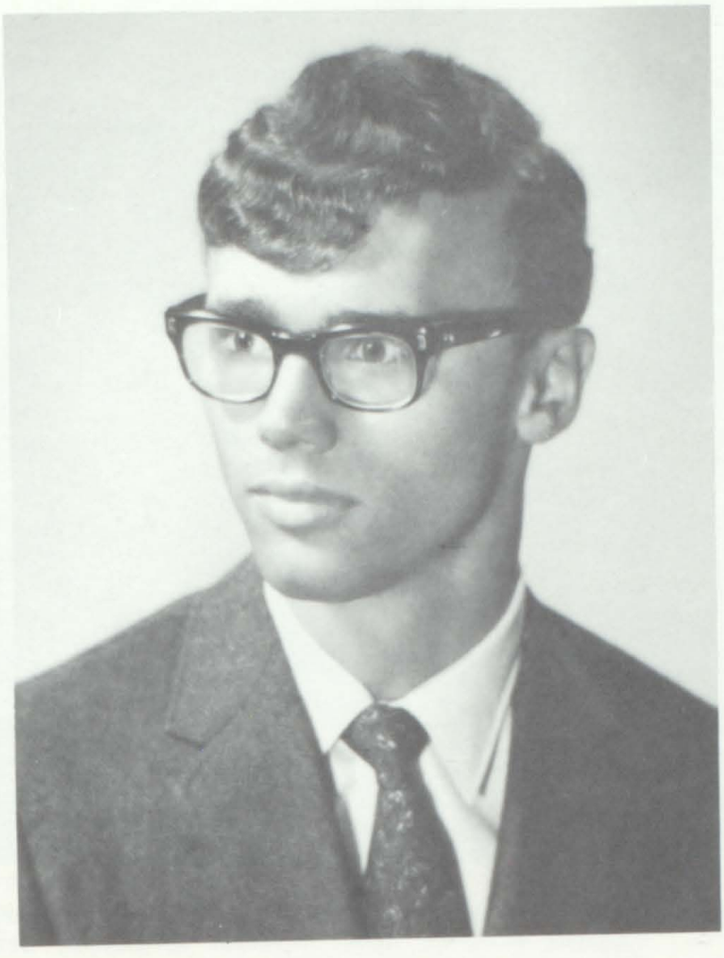
There were good times
And there were bad times.
Now there are no times left,
For we've used them all . . .



Valedictorian

Richard Paul Holland has earned the unsurpassed average of 96.77 to become Rome Free Academy's one hundredth valedictorian. Richard's dedication to the pursuit of learning during the last four years has earned him the respect of the entire student body. During his high school career, Richard has participated in countless activities, including Colgate Seminar, Pep Club, Future Doctors Club, A.F.S. Club, Junior Prom Committee, and Senior Ball Committee. He has also served as the President of French Club, and as a member of the Board of Directors of Interact.

Salutatorian

The salutatorian of the Class of 1969 is Roger Albert Ferlo. Roger has earned an enviable average of 96.50 while combining his studies and extracurricular activities to advantage. His activities have included the Senior Play, Colgate Seminar, National Honor Society, Boys' State, and German Club. Roger has been the Editor-in-Chief of Rostra this year and has also functioned as Treasurer of A.F.S. and President of Latin Club. Rome Free Academy salutes this year's valedictorian and salutatorian, Richard Holland and Roger Ferlo.

In March of each year, the National Honor Society inducts its new members. Each initiate of this highly selective organization must possess the qualities of scholarship, leadership and fine character, and show a willingness to serve others. Last March nineteen members of the Class of 1969 were inducted. Guided by Richard Holland, president; Cynthia Stockwell, vice-president; and Barbara Jones, secretary-treasurer, the Honor Society tries to inspire scholarship throughout the student body.

Regents Scholarships

This year fifty seniors from R.F.A. were awarded Regents Scholarships again making our number of scholarship winners among the highest in Oneida County. The Class of 1969 offers special congratulations to Libby Pritchard whose score of 278 placed her first in the county.

The exam is administered each October to seniors in every secondary school in the state and requires an entire day to complete. This year nearly 175,000 seniors in 1,200 schools took the examination. Of this number, 18,843 scholarships were awarded. Each student is tested English, Social Studies, Science, Mathematics, Music and Art.

Letters Of Commendation

The Class of 1969 was proud to announce that seventeen of its members were awarded National Merit Letters of Commendation. National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test taken in February of the junior year is considered by most students to be the most difficult of all their standardized tests. Therefore, receiving a Letter of Commendation indicates outstanding achievement and great personal satisfaction. This year William Griffith's excellent score enabled him to become R.F.A.'s only semi-finalist.

"Time Out For Ginger"

A girl tries out for the football team. Everyone said "Impossible!" until they saw the Senior Play, "Time Out for Ginger" on Friday, November 22. Through her determination to play high school football, Ginger creates many hilarious scenes with her family and friends. Her two older sisters, Jeanne and Joan, and her parents are forced to cope with her eagerness. Howard and Agnes Carol make many witty remarks; Mr. Wilson, the high school principal, threatens to expel Ginger from school; and Eddie Davis, the football hero, is decked by Ginger's scholarly boyfriend, Tommie Green. Comically marching on and off stage, Liz, the family maid, adds to the humor to the play. And banker Ed Hoffman almost turns cheerleader with his cheers, "Boola, Boola", and "Sis-Boom-Bah!".

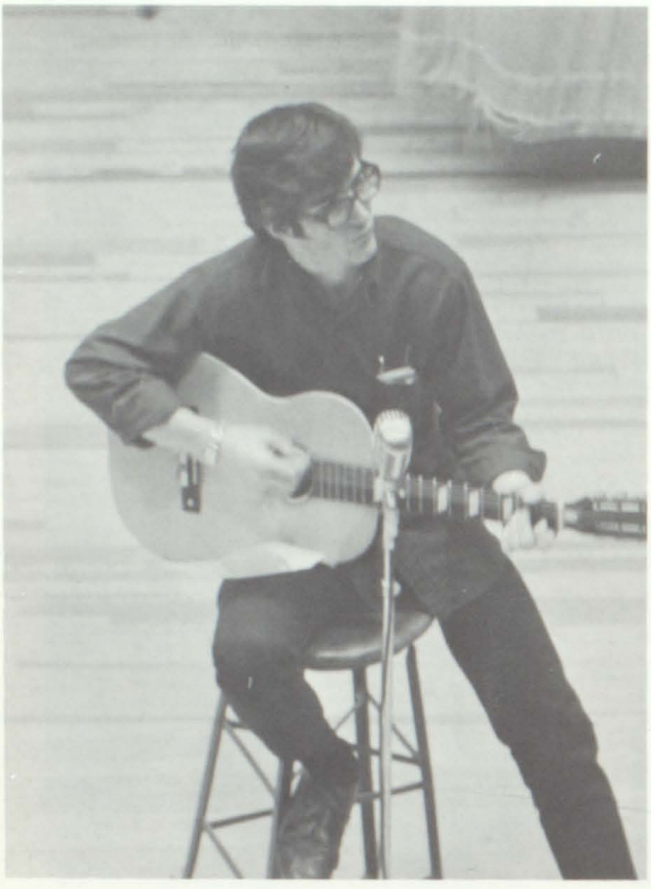
Run And Call The Critics



This year's talent show, presented by the Junior Red Cross, was one of the most successful events of the school year. Directed by Mr. Grapensteter and Mr. Burneko, the show also gave performances at the Rome Home, the State School, and the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Syracuse.

Vinny Garofalo and Anthony Joseph provided their audiences with many hilarious moments. Other fabulous performers included Sharon Davis, Kathy Perez and Valerie Ross.

Altogether, well over 50 students combined their talents to provide the student body with a marvelous talent show.

Back To Tara

This year the Class of 1970 transformed the boys' gym into a tranquil, but breathtaking Southern plantation when they presented "Back to Tara" on January 31, 1969.

After anxious girls greeted their nervous Sir Galahads and paused for picture-taking, they were off for a magical, memory-filled evening.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Jennifer Caron as Queen. Members of her court included Jan Tietze, Bonnie Dean, Wendy Caswell, Barb Drexler, and Terri Ryan.

Mrs. Robert Hubbell spent a great deal of time with enthusiastic members of the junior class to recall the days of Gone With the Wind.

When I first came to RFA last September, I was very excited by the opportunity to experience American student life. Of course, I was also a little nervous about coming to a strange place. But my eagerness to learn new things overcame my apprehension.

The size of RFA is almost the same as the size of my high school in Sapporo, Japan – about 1,500 students. Japanese students study under the same system that RFA has. School begins at 8:30 in the morning and ends at 3:15 in the afternoon, with six periods everyday. Vacation schedules are different, but the Japanese school year consists of 42 weeks.

Students at RFA have been very nice to me. They have helped me in my studies and social activities. They have given me an impression of enjoying themselves in school.

During the past year at RFA I have learned a great deal. I have had interesting classmates. As a result, my classes have been stimulating.

As I prepare to return home, I have pleasant memories of RFA, my teachers, and fellow-students. I will go back to Japan with great fondness for the people in Rome, New York, and the United States.

An AFS experience is almost indescribable. It's not just traveling abroad, but it's living and adjusting in another culture in another family.

I left Florida in the middle of the night, and by early morning I was in my new bedroom unpacking all my belongings. My first couple of weeks were mass confusion with the Spanish language. However, after I broke the barrier, I discovered a great new life in the Ecuadorian style. I made new friends who showed me around the city, took me mountain climbing, and taught me the social customs of the country. Hunting made another great pastime. We hunted turtle doves, deer, and trophy birds. We watched and played soccer on many occasions.

Politics played a big role in Ecuador. During my stay, the government installed its new officers and congressional sessions started. There were many political hot spots during the two months. It was most interesting to watch and listen to the opinions of many political groups. I also learned of many different ideas and opinions of our country, ranging from complete hatred to strong favoritism.

AFS is the greatest thing that could have happened to me. Since my Ecuadorian family and I correspond quite regularly, my experience will probably never end.

The Rome Free Academy Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Charles Budesheim, is one of the three facets of our outstanding music department.

This year the orchestra helped to make the annual Christmas Concert a success. It also presented evening programs, which were open to the public, and several assemblies in area schools. Several members of this year's orchestra were selected to attend the Allstate Orchestra and the area sectionals.

The orchestra once again is proof of the high quality of our music department.

A Cappella Choir

The a cappella choir, under the direction of Mr. William Moonan, constitutes an important part of the music curriculum. The choir offers a repertoire composed of religious as well as popular selections. The a cappella choir displays its talent in several assemblies at RFA and other local schools each year. At Christmas, the choir broadcasts a program of Christmas carols over a local television station.

The sophomore choir was formed to give the sophomores an opportunity to display their talents and to prepare them for membership in a cappella. Directed by Mr. Moonan, the sophomore choir combines with the a cappella and orchestra to present a special program of musical entertainment.

Rome Free Academy's Band

Each year thousands of football fans enjoy the spectacular half time shows performed by the Rome Free Academy band. Directed by Mr. John Wise, the band plays a vital role in the football program by providing entertainment and inspiring school spirit.

In the winter the marching band divides into two concert bands. The concert band performs in several evening concerts as well as in many assemblies at some of the elementary and junior high schools. The highlight of this year was the exchange concerts with Edison High School in Alexandria, Virginia. These concerts provided two weekends of new friendships, excellent music and wonderful musical experience.

R.F.A. is truly proud of its band and of the fine representation its members have given our school.

THE CLASS OF 1970

Our second year at Rome Free Academy has proven to be a very successful attempt at growing up. We as juniors accepted the duties of initiating the sophomores by selling elevator and cafeteria tickets. We also faced the dreaded PSAT's and SAT's along with the Merit Scholarship Exam. They were trying exams, but forced us to think about our futures – either business or college.

The Junior Class was triumphant in all its attempts at fund-raising for the Junior Prom on January 31. Early in the fall we held bakesales, dances, and other events, which contributed to the funds. We must not forget to thank publicly Mrs. Hubbell and her artists for their hours of toil in creating decorations.

Our officers, Bob, Barb, Donna, and Terry have served us very well. They provided the incentive for our success in the Thanksgiving Drive and Snow Sculpture.

With great enthusiasm, the class of '70 anticipated the arrival of their class rings in May. These rings symbolize our future as seniors and the growing responsibilities that will face us. We look forward to accepting these responsibilities and hope our last year at Rome Free Academy is as successful and rewarding as the first two.

The Class Of 1971

The class of "71" started out its year at RFA with the election of officers. The newly elected officers are Anthony Corigliano, president; Paul D'Amore, vice-president; Barbara Kenny, secretary; and Dominick Grasso, treasurer. During the successful Thanksgiving drive, the sophomores placed second in the school competition, trailing the seniors by only $4.00. Another duty of the sophomore class is to decorate the alcove for Christmas. Work began on a manger scene with an illuminated Christmas tree at the side. The figures were made of plaster of paris and paper and were sprayed with a metallic gold paint.

The sophomore class also has plans to hold a money-raising activity by sponsoring a semi-formal dance for sophomores only.

The duties of the sophomore class may be fewer because we are underclassmen; but they are very rewarding. We participated in every major drive held and made a good showing in each one. We hope our enthusiastic school spirit continues through our junior and senior years to make the class of "71" one long to be remembered.

During their fifth straight undefeated season, this year's varsity football team showed the same strength and courage that has been a tradition at Rome Free Academy. Head Coach, Donald Bruce and his assistants, Ed Weed and Jim Rafferty, once again directed the team through a fine season. The Black Knights started the season with a 27–0 victory over Fayetteville-Manlius. The team's only defeat came at the hands of New Hartford, who later had to forfeit all of their games because of fielding an illegal player. Last encounters against Auburn and Watertown ended as Roman victories this season.

These two rivalries, two of the oldest in the state, have been cancelled due to other committments. Co-Captained by Mike Davis, Bruce Simpson, and Gene Aquino, Rome Free Academy placed first in the Central Oneida League. The C.O.L. All-Star Team included Black Knights John Shearer, Tracy Stubbs, Mike Davis, Bill Slivka, Jerry Koons, Gene Aquino, and Jim Sezna.

This year's top runner was Greg Moore, who broke the school record with a time of 11:26 for the 2.35 mile course. Greg also ran in state competition and finished in 37th position. The squad was mentored by Coach William Coughlin.

Soccer

This year's soccer team, captained by Lauren Weissman, completed its second winning season in its four years of existence. The boys worked through a short but tough schedule of sixteen games, finishing with an 8–7–1 record. Pat Pirillo, the team goalkeeper, did a great job in the nets. Anthony Mariano set a new individual scoring record with ten goals in one season. Another record was broken as the booters had a high team score of 6 to 0 against West Leyden. Rome was edged out of a chance for sectional play by Old Forge. However, Coach Robert Bean, even while losing some fine players, is looking forward to another winning season next year.

Basketball

Coached by Lew Bennett and captained by Mike Davis and Gary DeFazio, the Black Knights basketball team had a trying season. Handicapped in some of their games by the loss of John Haley, Tracy Stubbs, and Geoff Frost, the team found several difficulties. Despite this set back, the R.F.A. roundballers still won the Norwich Christmas Tournament and the Rome City Championship. The predominantly senior team saw excellent performances from Gary DeFazio and Dan Szewczyk, as well as from high scorer Mike Davis.

This year's gymnastics team, under the direction of head coach Robert Bean, successfully defended their Mohawk Valley Gymnastic League championship of last year. The team was undefeated in league action and sustained only one loss to give them a very respectable 8 and 1 record for the year. Jeff Bean, captain, led his team throughout the year and captured first places in the floor exercise, parallel bars, side horse, and all-around events at the league championship meet. Other Rome standouts, including Gary Hanba, Bill Cooper, Paul Jenkins, and Ron Gaithers, accompanied Jeff Bean to the Section 3 Championships.

The team captains were Joe Volpe, who injured his leg and was out for most of the season, and Bill Conover. The three top scorers were Bill Conover, Sal Frank, and Lauren Weissman.

New records were set by Kim Windrath, a flying freshman, in the 400 yard freestyle. Also in the 400 yard freestyle relay, a new record was set by Marty Birnie, Leroy Blymiller, Bud Dooley, and John Dombrowski. Rich Green once again starred on the diving board. The 1968–1969 Rome Free Academy hockey team proved to be in excellent form for the season. Led by Captain Dave Harris and Assistant Captains Kirk Hinman and Jim Bartell, the boys finished with a record of 14 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie in the regular season. The team was undefeated in the Central Hockey League to be the new league's first CHL champions. R.F.A's old hockey rival, Clinton, was beaten twice by the same score of 5–3. A new record of team goals was set at 97 in a regular season. Goalie Fran Redmond did a great job for the team along with high scorer Tony Mariano, who netted 23 goals. This was hockey's best season in the history of R.F.A under the coaching of Don Geary and Don Simon.

Mike Davis had the highest batting average at .400. John Haley and Geoff Wright were the leading fielders.

Shin Bruisers

A lot of girls come to school during the fall sports season with bruises on their shins and aches all over their bodies. These girls are members of the versatile girls field hockey team, which practices diligently every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights under the able supervision of Miss Ruth Solan and Miss Susan Luizzi.

The team tallied its best season this year with six wins, one loss, and one tie. The game of the season was played in the pouring rain against Beaver River, one of the toughest teams in New York State. The hard-fought game was decided in the last few minutes when the R.F.A. girls came from behind to post a 3–2 loss. The girls scored a total of 23 goals this season with their opponents scoring only five goals against them.

A total of fourteen seniors will be lost after graduation this year. The loss will be a severe one because nine of the seniors are starting players. There is a great depth and enthusiasm in the sophomore and junior squad members, and this year's experience should carry on the winning streak through next season. A fine team is sure to be built from the great material the coaches have to work with.

In class competition, the seniors came out on top. The highly skilled upperclassmen walloped both the sophomores and the juniors with identical scores of 4–0. The sophomores were able to edge out the juniors by taking second place with a 3–2 win which left the juniors in the bottom place.

Rackettes Have A Winning Season

The R.F.A. girls tennis team holds a high scoring record of which our school can be proud. Every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, all girls from beginners to advanced players meet with Miss Ruth Demers to learn new techniques and brush-up on old ones. The racketeers piled up a 5–2–2 record this year. Outstanding victories were tallied over Cazenovia, U.F.A., V.V.S., and New Hartford. Hard fought defeats gave a victory to Herkimer and tie to Westmoreland. Graduation will show the loss of only a few members of the squad, since most of the team are underclassmen.

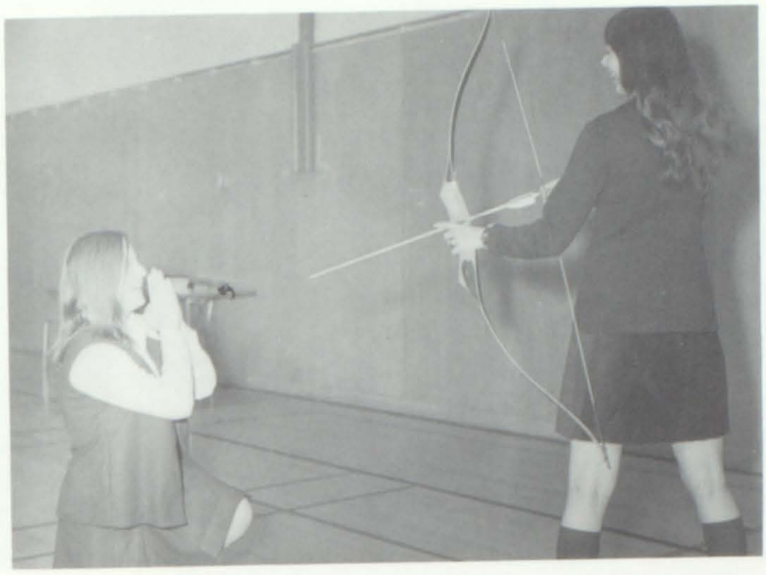
The Merry Men



If you ever had the chance to walk across the south end of the J.V. football field, you might have thought that someone was trying to shoot an apple off your head. Every Tuesday and Thursday night after school, the archery team meets under the supervision of Mrs. Kay White to practice their skills to improve for forthcoming meets with other high schools in the area. The most qualified members of the squad are able to represent RFA at the annual Central New York Archery Association meet in the fall. High scorer for the season was junior Amy Dotzler who rallied the team to three victories.

Action On The Courts

If a poll were to be taken to find out which sport is most popular with girls at R.F.A., it would undoubtedly show basketball far ahead of all other sports. From November until January, girls compete on the intramural level to find a championship team. In December, the All-Rome Basketball playday is held where the teams battle for the championship. The Stough Competition is the highlight of the season where each class tries to win the trophy. The interscholastic team is directed by Miss Ruth Demers and provides the more advanced girls with a chance to play against other high schools in the area. The girls have a rough season with a lot of practice and hard work, but it is made worthwhile when they turn in an excellent record at the end of the season.

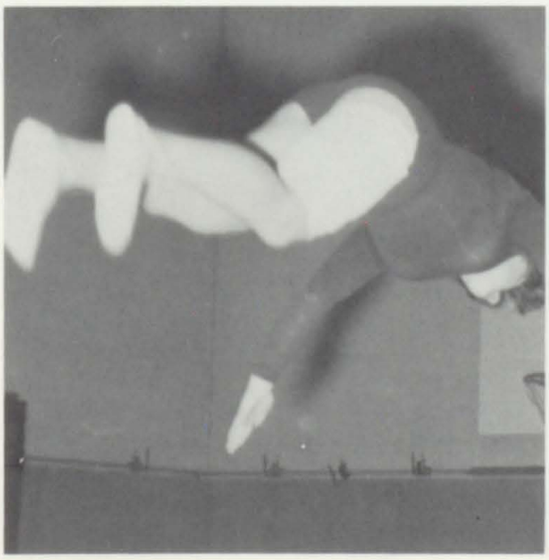
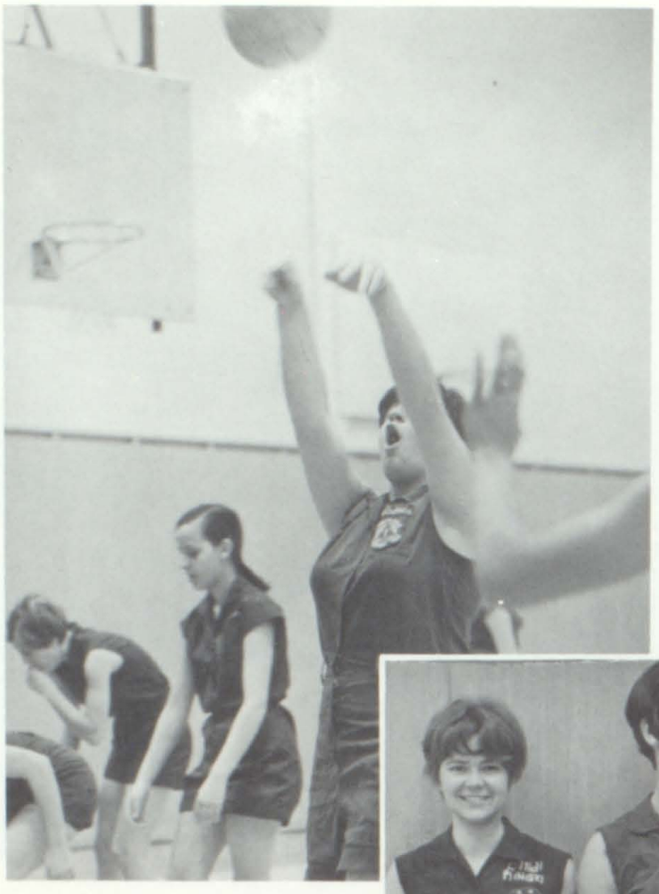
Gymnasts

Monday nights during the winter sports season are devoted to the agile girl gymnasts who practice and make up their routines on various pieces of apparatus. Besides gaining an overall knowledge of gymnastics, the girls, under the direction of Miss Ruth Demers, develop co-ordination, agility, balance, and poise. Each girl has her choice of a wide variety of apparatus including the uneven parallel bars, the horse, the balance beam, free exercise, and the trampoline. After developing their skills on the equipment, the more skilled members of the team participate in gym meets with various area high schools at home and on the road. The R.F.A. gym team also hosts workshops with area schools which don't have such a diversified program as the one our athletic department offers. Besides the curriculum outlined in the athletic program, some girls are able to develop skills beyond those of the average student which will aid them in future pursuits.





After the basketballs are stored away, the volleyball nets go up and the balls are volleyed throughout the gym. The famous yells of "I've got it" and "Set 'em up" echo from the walls beginning in early February and lasting until the end of March. The interscholastic season provides the girls with an extremely heavy schedule this year. Practice was usually held during the activity period, as new techniques were taught to the girls by Coach Miss Susan Luizzi. In early March, the All-Rome Volleyball Sports Day was held, and the girls battled against members of their own class all day long for the championship. The middle of March called for area tournaments that were also all-day affairs. This year the girls volleyed their way to an extremely impressive victory at the AWPENYS Tournament. Though the season ends with many sprained fingers and bruised shins, the effort is worth it when the final score is tallied.

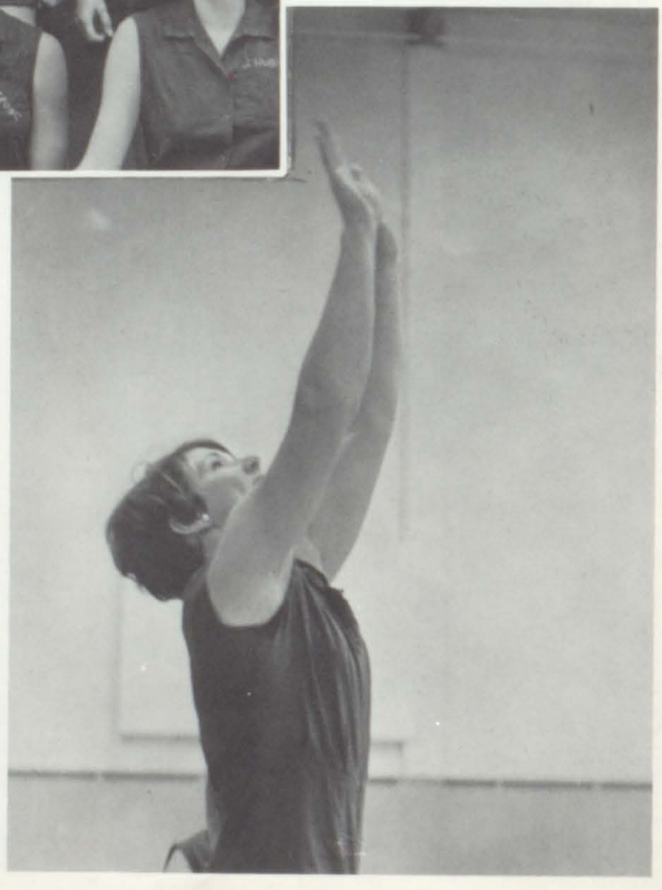
Sets, Spikes, Serves



With a strong backing from the junior class, this year's mermaids splashed to a very impressive record. Meeting with Miss Susan Luizzi every Monday and Wednesday nights, the girls work on all fundamentals and then are allowed to perfect their own strokes or dives. Extra practice sessions are held every Tuesday and Thursday mornings during the activity period to get the team members ready for meets.

Interschool meets proved rough competition for the mermaids, but they pulled through at every meet. The annual invitational meet held at Rome this year saw the only flaw on this year's record as the Romans were defeated by a strong, well-balanced New Hartford team, 53–50.

After the bathing suits were finally dried and the pool was drained out, the records that were compiled will stand for a long time.

Strikes Spares And Gutters

The girls bowling team rolls weekly at the Rome Bowling Center under the watchful eye of Mrs. Kay White. Strikes, spares, and gutters usually mark the score-sheets which are tallied the following day. Bowling matches are held with various schools from the area, and a Central Bowling Tournament is held in the later part of the season.

In early June, a banquet is held honoring all the individual bowlers, and trophies are awarded to the all-around team and individual high scorer. This season honors go to Cindy Frasher.

Managers

The efficiency and success of sports days depends on the help of many devoted girls. The Managers Club under the supervision of Miss Susan Luizzi aids to the well-balanced athletic program. Head-managers Betty Johnson and Ruthann Jones direct the club by taking phone messages, watching the gym office, assisting in first aid, and serving refreshments during sports days.

"Strike three, you're out!" is the familiar cry that is heard every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday night during the spring sports season at R.F.A. Interested ball players come to practice their skills at batting, running, throwing, and catching, to get in condition to compete against other schools. At the helm of all this activity is Miss Susan Luizzi, either playing shortstop or umpiring the game. At the end of the season, the girls are invited to the Annual Chittinango Sportsday for an all-day tournament. For the past seven years, the R.F.A. girls have played their best to bring the trophy home. Last year, after rough competition, the girls were able to win and retire the trophy to Rome. This year was no exception – the girls won the trophy again creating the possibility of retiring another trophy in girls sports.

Batters And

Sprinters

If you have any intentions of trying out for the President's Physical Fitness Team, it would be wise to do some conditioning with the girls' track team. Each spring, rain or shine, a group of girls with various intentions meet on the track to compete in this vigorous sport. Some come to shed a few pounds, some to earn a few points, others to try the challenging sport, and a few to compete for their enjoyment. At the helm of the program, either firing the gun for the hundred yard dash, timing the 50 yard hurdles, measuring a discus throw, or raising the high jump bar a couple of inches is Miss Barbara Smith who deserves a great deal of credit for the fantastic team she produces each year. The girls are taught one thing throughout the season – in a sport like track, pride in personal achievement depends upon a great deal of individual effort.

"Have You Got The Spirit?"

"All set? You bet! Ready – hit it!" No matter if the rain were pouring down or if basketballs were bombarding them, our dedicated and vivacious cheerleaders were always there to lead the school in cheers. Many times it seemed hard to provoke the crowds to cheer because of the excitement of the games, but our girls came through and transformed groups of tranquility to screaming enthusiasts.

Under the supervision of Miss Kathy Fowler, an elementary teacher at Ridge Mills School, the two squads met every Tuesday and Thursday to practice old cheers and to develop new ones for the upcoming games.

Immediately after spring vacation, the girls' gym is invaded by all eligible freshman, sophomore, and junior girls who are interested in trying out for the squads. After two weeks of hard and painful, but fun-filled practices and cuts, seven varsity and ten junior varsity girls are selected. To insure that school spirit is produced, the girls are judged upon the attitude, poise, co-ordination, and enthusiasm.

R. Dremluk

Rome Free Academy Student Association is composed of those students who wish to participate in school elections, clubs, and any activity concerning Student Association. This organization needs capable and outstanding leadership. The Student Government is directed by Mr. Franklin Pelkey, our co-ordinator of extra-curricular activities. The Association is headed by a president, a vice-president, and a secretary, and is comprised of Student Council and a Student Cabinet. The Council sponsors many activities including school elections, pep rallies, color days, fund raising drives, and the annual all-out UFA Bonfire and victory celebrations. This school government has surely been important and helpful in our education at RFA.

Once again, the De-O-Wain-Sta Editorial Staff has tried their hardest to bring you the best yearbook ever. The year 1969 has special significance because it marks Rome Free Academy's hundredth graduating class, and all the more reason for such a great yearbook. The Editorial Staff is especially grateful to Miss Carol Stahl, our advisor and a new arrival on the faculty. Editors for this year's De-O-Wain-Sta were Buzzy Guida, Editor-in-Chief, and Jan Evans, Assistant Editor. Section Editors were Carol Pliniski and Ruthann Jones, Seniors; Janis Hubiak and Ginny Rahrig, Underclassmen; Marli Hall and Bob Lazovik, Student Life; Judy Costello and Roberta Leffert, Curriculum; Mysshe Butler and Marcie Goldstick, Activities; and Reena Bucknell and Dave Harris, Sports. BSI Broadcast "Attention please for your Monday morning announcements." "Attention please for your Tuesday morning announcements." And so it continues, day after day, week after week. In his 4th year as sponsor of B.S.I. Broadcast, Mr. Dennis Smith has done fine work selecting fifteen juniors and seniors who have kept the student body of Rome Free Academy constantly aware of college conferences, meetings, and newly made rules and regulations. Officers for this year's group are John Siddall, president; Ray Meir, vice-president; and Libby Pritchard, secretary. This club provides an excellent opportunity for students interested in radio-announcing as a profession to learn to work technical equipment and to become used to live announcing. Each year members of B.S.I. Broadcast spend an entire afternoon touring local radio stations, seeing how they are run and meeting the people who run them.

Mr. Lincoln Kan's second year as sponsor of Rome Free Academy's BSI Press has been a very successful one. Tom Bates, an active member of last year's staff, is Editor-in-Chief of the Echo this year. Backing Tom up are the competent staff of Debbie Miller as Ass't. Editor; Pam Parish as Managing Editor; and more than sixty other members. The paper contains school news, editorials, community events involving Rome Free Academy students, and advertisements for local businesses. The Echo staff purchased an orange and black bell which was rung during football season after each Black Knight touchdown. Also accomplished was the establishment of a B.S.I. Radio division, whose members write up school news to be announced weekly over WKAL. These two groups working together have established an excellent bridge of communications between students, faculty, and the community.

Rostra And Forum

Through the guidance of Mrs. Lynda Fenwick, and under the direction of Editors Lauren Weissman and Sally Howell, the Forum Board humorously and diligently composes news items and limelighters throughout the school. Mind-shattering gossip, interviews of school celebrities, and reviews of activities and social functions are among the many items posted. Reading the Forum is an unforgettable experience for news-hungry students.

Roses are red, violets are blue — essays, short stories and sonnets, too; these are all found in Rome Free Academy's fine literary magazine, Rostra. Also under the direction of Mrs. Lynda Fenwick, Editor-in-Chief Roger Ferlo conducts a never-ending search for worthy examples of talented Rome Free Academy authors.

Library Council

One of the oldest service clubs of Rome Free Academy is the Library Council. Guiding these ambitious helpers are Mrs. Helen Arthur and Mrs. Marjorie Mortis who manage and assist in improving the library's operations. The students work with the librarians and maintain college catalogues and career and vertical files, cover new books, shelve returned materials, file magazines, and attend to the front desk. Without their donation of one period a week, the maintenance of our library would be virtually impossible. R.F.A.'s Library Council is led by the following dedicated officers: John Siddall, president; Claudette Weed, vice-president) Joan Bates, secretary; and Debbie Miller, treasurer.

Bursting into the fall scene with renewed spirit was Rome Free Academy's Pep Club. This year, Pep Club has had a very successful year with the direction of two new sponsors, Mr. Nelson Gray and Mr. Paul DelPiano. Under the leadership of President Carolyn Peluso; Vice-President Kathy O'Mara; Secretary Michele Eades; and Treasurer Jan Teitze, the dedicated members of the club have worked steadily for R.F.A. In addition to directing numerous color days, Pep Club has sponsored buses for out-of-town athletic events, decorated the halls, and kept up the general spirit of the student body. Organizing "Beat Whitesboro" Day, selling pins and yarn dolls, and sponsoring dances were other Pep Club activities. Pep Club also carried out plans for successful fall and winter weekends.

Red Cross

This year the Junior Red Cross has done a magnificent job in achieving its purpose of helping the poor and unfortunate people in Rome and overseas. The money from their annual fund-raising drive from their candy sale made a total of over $400 which they gave the local Red Cross Chapter. The proceeds of their very successful Christmas dance (which even Santa Claus attended) went to missions around the world. Another project was sending a Red Cross Chest overseas. These chests are distributed to areas afflicted with disasters. As is customary, the club once again presented its annual Talent Show.

This year the club was under the capable leadership of advisor, Elmer Grapensteter and officers Pat McLaughlin, president; Lynn Sauer, secretary; and Donna Tucker, treasurer.

Anyone who has ever spoken to a foreign student in this country or to a student returning from abroad cannot help but sense the enthusiasm these students have for the work being done by the American Field Service. R.F.A.'s branch of AFS'ers is headed by Kristen Waters as president, Janis Hubiak as vice-president, Cindy Stockwell as secretary, and Roger Ferlo as treasurer. All have worked hard to raise funds necessary to sponsor another foreign exchange student next year. During the winter, they made arrangements for other foreign students in the area to gather in Rome for an AFS Weekend. Every senior has a special memory of the foreign student who was a part of his class, and every member of the school benefits through an understanding of other peoples of the world.

Working for a better knowledge of family and community life, Future Homemakers of America devote much of their time to civic and community activities. R.F.A.'s Chapter of F.H.A. is the oldest in New York State, having begun in 1929 as a charter member of the original Home Economics Club of N.Y.S. and then, in 1946, becoming an honorary member of the newly formed F.T.A. R.F.A.'s chapter has had, in 23 years, six national officers. Since its origin, Mrs. Marion Graves has lent a guiding hand to the girls. Officers this year are President Debbie Watson, Vice-President Lynn Davis, Secretary Judy Lewis, and Treasurer Pat McLaughlin. Special club activities this year included presenting gifts to unfortunate patients in nearby nursing homes at Christmas, Valentine's Day, and Easter.

1969 will be remembered as the year of the "New Action" Monitors, for under the direction of a new sponsor, Mr. Richard Valerie, club members witnessed many progressive changes. Students wandering through the halls at odd times have probably noticed other students on duty as monitors, studying in the halls and trying their best to keep the halls of Rome Free Academy quiet. New additions to the club this year were personalized chairs with MONITORS printed in large letters on the backs where students sit during their assigned duties, and also buttons financed by a bakesale which were used for their identification as monitors. Officers of this year's club are President Francis (Bud) Dooley and Secretary-Treasurer Janet Froelich.

Our Motto

It has been our desire to establish these places as retreats where you may find surcease and relief from the everyday cares of life. We don't want you to look upon them as restaurants, cafes or cabarets, but as havens where you will be assured of relaxation and a pleasant hour or two safe in the port of sincere hospitality.
